INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Member of
IIG Horizons Securities LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of IIG Horizons Securities LLC (a limited liability company) as of December 31, 2004. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial condition. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall statement of financial condition presentation. We believe that our audit of the statement of financial condition provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of IIG Horizons Securities LLC as of December 31, 2004, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

(a limited liability company)

NOTES TO STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION
December 31, 2004

- 1. ORGANIZATION: IIG Horizons Securities LLC (the "Company") is registered as a broker-dealer in securities with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.

The Company is a nonclearing broker-dealer and is exempt from the provisions of rule 15c3-3 as all customers' accounts, as defined, are carried by the clearing broker.
- 2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES: The Company records commission, revenue and expenses on a trade-date basis.

This financial statement has been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, which require the use of estimates by management.
- 3. DUE FROM BROKER: The clearing and depository operations for the customers' security transactions are provided by its clearing broker pursuant to a clearance agreement.

The Company has agreed to indemnify its clearing broker for losses that the clearing broker may sustain from the customer accounts introduced by the Company. As of December 31, 2004, there were no amounts owed to the clearing broker by these customers in connection with normal cash, margin and delivery against payment transactions.

At December 31, 2004, the receivable from the clearing broker represents cash maintained at the clearing broker and commissions receivable earned as an introducing broker for the transactions of its customers.
- 4. INCOME TAXES: The Company does not record a provision for income taxes because its Member is required to report the Company's income or loss on its income tax return.
- 5. REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS: Pursuant to the Uniform Net Capital requirements of the SEC under rule 15c3-1, the Company is required to maintain minimum net capital, as defined. The Company is subject to the minimum net capital requirement of the greater of $100,000 or one-fifteenth of aggregate indebtedness, as defined. Net capital and the related ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital may fluctuate on a daily basis; however, at December 31, 2004, the Company had net capital, as defined, of $199,133, which exceeded the required amount by $99,133.
